PLEASE READ! DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN UPDATED WITH NEW CATEGORIES AND INFORMATION FOR 2017!

Motto: "Toward New Horizons"

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a nonprofit national career and technical student organization for young men and women in Family and Consumer Sciences education in public and private school through grade 12. Everyone is part of a family, and FCCLA is the only national Career and Technical Student Organization with the family as its central focus. Since 1945, FCCLA members have been making a difference in their families, careers, and communities by addressing important personal, work, and societal issues through Family and Consumer Sciences education.

Rules

1. Each participant MUST pre-register at www.tnvalleyfair.org in their own name, not the school name. You may NOT register an entire group on one entry form. Each student must fill out an entry form.
2. Competition is open to all FCCLA members in East and Middle Tennessee.
3. On the day of the event the following will be required:
 - * Each Chapter advisor must furnish a list of the Talent/Fashion Show participants to the Event Coordinator.
 - * Each Talent Show participant must submit in writing an introduction to the act, supply their own music, props, etc.
 - * Each Chapter must furnish a narrator for the Fashion Show participant.
4. A microphone will be available for the participant use.
5. First, second and third place trophies will be awarded to participants in both the Talent Show and Fashion Show.
6. Winning garments need to be placed on display in the FCCLA Department on the upper level of the Jacob Building until the end of Fair.
7. Items entered in Classes 4, 6, and 7 must be delivered to upper level of Jacob Building on Thursday, September 7 from 3:00 pm-7:00pm with judging to immediately followed.

One Room Schoolhouse located Upper Level of the Jacob Building
Pre-registration Required with Event Coordinator

1. Participation is open to all FCCLA members in the East and Middle regions.
2. FCCLA members may coordinate a demonstration or activity to be held in the One Room Schoolhouse for a child, adolescent or adult audience.
3. The demonstration or activity must relate to skills learned in Family and Consumer Sciences or FCCLA. (Example: A story time for children; an illustrated talk on home safety for all age groups, etc.)
4. Chapters interested in participating must pre-register by completing the entry form found at the back of this catalog. Form should be mailed directly to the Event Coordinator AND to the Tennessee Valley Fair. After chapters have pre-registered, they will be contacted in order that a specific day can be scheduled for their demonstration or activity.
5. The chapter must furnish all supplies and equipment for this event.
6. Participation is limited to five FCCLA members and their advisor.
7. Demonstration should relate to FCCLA or Human Studies.

Class 4 — Bulletin Board Exhibit

Theme:

Upper Level of the Jacob Building
 Delivery: Thursday, September 7th - 3:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
 Judging: Thursday, September 7, 2017

Premiums for Class 4
1st - $50.00	2nd - $45.00	3rd - $40.00	4th - $35.00
5th - $30.00	6th - $25.00	7th - $20.00	8th - $15.00

- Each chapter participating will select an idea or topic related to the theme and construct a bulletin board.
- Only 1 entry per chapter.
- The bulletin board MUST be constructed on a corkboard surface 3'H x 4'W. The participant must provide the corkboard surface. The bulletin board must have a mounting on the back that will enable it to be hung on the interior of the One Room Schoolhouse or the Community Center. Points will be deducted for boards without hanging hardware. Boards not on corkboard will be DISQUALIFIED!
- Your bulletin board must be designed without any reference to your school or chapter. The name of your school and chapter will be placed on the bulletin board after judging has been completed.
- Participating chapters are encouraged to insure quality in their bulletin board using:
 - Attention grabbers that require no electricity or batteries.
 - Attractive and well-prepared components and sign work.
 - Effective display techniques.
- IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Fair will open to the public at 3:00 p.m., Friday, September 8th, and will close at 10:00p.m., Sunday, September 17th. In order to open at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, we must have bulletin boards in place by this time. We are, however, aware of the fact that this could work a hardship on FCCLA participants because of their school responsibilities. We are therefore permitting these entries to be delivered Thursday, September 7th.
- Your bulletin board may be removed after Noon, Sunday, September 18th. If your bulletin board is removed before this time, you and/or your chapter will forfeit any cash awarded to your bulletin board.
- The Tennessee Valley Fair will not be responsible for any items removed from the bulletin board.

Boards without mounting hardware will automatically lose 10 points, boards with ANY reference to school or chapter will lose 5 points
